PROJECTS

- Corporate Transportation Optimization System (Vehicle Routing Engine) Jan 2026-March 2026
Kriti-inter hostel Technical Competition Github
 - Algorithm: Built a scalable optimization engine using K-Means clustering, greedy insertion, repair heuristics, and 2-opt local search to solve a constrained vehicle routing problem.
 - Contribution: Co-designed and implemented the core backend logic in Python, handling real-time assignment, constraint validation (time windows, capacity, preferences), and route optimization.
 - Impact and Learning: Applied algorithm design, data structures, and performance optimization to deliver an end-to-end system achieving 81–95 percent cost reduction with efficient API integration (FastAPI + Node.js).
- Auto Assignment Grader github
Personal project
 - Functionality: Developed a backend system to automatically evaluate programming submissions by executing code against predefined test cases and validating outputs
 - Tech Stack and Implementation: Implemented using Python, designing a file-based execution pipeline to handle multiple test cases and generate structured results
 - Impact: Improved evaluation efficiency and reliability by automating grading, ensuring consistent and scalable assessment of submissions
- Disrupt Website website
Ecell IIT guwahati
 - Contributed to the development of the DISRUPT startup bootcamp website as part of the WebOps team, collaborating on frontend structure and overall site integration
 - Developed a dedicated frontend section using HTML and CSS, focusing on clean layout, styling, and ensuring smooth integration with the rest of the website
